AN ENCHANTING 18TH CENTURY BUILDING

La Cour des Consuls Hotel & Spa has taken up residence in Les Carmes, one of the oldest and most characterful quarters of the “Ville Rose”. Just steps from the banks of the Garonne river, the Musée des Augustins and the city courts, you enter another world when you reside at this magnificent neoclassical-style townhouse, with its distinctly Toulousan brick façade.

CLASSICAL MEETS CONTEMPORARY

Once a privately-owned mansion, La Cour des Consuls presents inimitable style. Decorator Chantal Peyrat has astutely blended contemporary urban chic and classical elegance for an inviting atmosphere with the feel of traditional family residence. Every staircase and courtyard is a delight to discover. Rooms and communal spaces exude luxury, making this a choice address whether you are in Toulouse for business or leisure.

SOPHISTICATED, ORIGINAL CUISINE

At the confidential and exclusive restaurant, Le Cénacle, chef Jérôme Ryon prepares sophisticated regional cuisine with a subtle Occitan inspiration. Expect a relaxed and flavourful dining experience in a chic setting, before kicking back in the oh-so British Champagne Bar.

Spa Graine de Pastel.

The secret of Graine de Pastel beauty products lies in their traditional pastel-based recipe. Used in the spa, they give richly textured treatments leaving unparalleled sensations.

An invitation to well-being.

Designed in the style of a bourgeois apartment in relaxing white tones, the spa has four daylight-flooded treatment rooms and a steam room with relaxation room.

A restful night.

Rooms with a subtle, modern décor, each with a plush, intimate atmosphere and colours to match.

IN THE STYLE OF A GRAND FAMILY RESIDENCE

Meeting rooms have a lived-in feel. Both the Library and the Boardroom are suitably equipped for your seminars and meetings.
