A TALE OF RENAISSANCE

Built in 1894, Hotel Carlton Lyon radiates a timeless elegance and authentic charm. The decor by Yann le Coadic and Alessandro Scotto is perfectly in tune with the building's rich heritage. Graced by wrought iron balconies, a dome and rotunda, the splendid Haussmann facade echoes the refinement of its historical interior. Wonders of the past come to life in the forms of the magnificent 1930s Roux-Combaluzier elevator encased in a wrought iron staircase, period stained-glass windows and more. Carlton's luxurious style is omnipresent here.

AN IDYLIC SETTING

Not far from the Opéra and the Théâtre des Célestins, Hotel Carlton Lyon has always been a favourite spot for artists, a place anchored in the world of culture, arts and performances. Situated on the peninsula in the heart of Lyon, near the Place Bellecour, the hotel is an ideal starting point for exploring the city. From the Saint-Jean Cathedral to museums and luxury shops, discover all that the City of the Lights has to offer.

A GASTRONOMIC CAPITAL

Michelin-starred chef Georges Blanc creates gourmet dishes using seasonal produce for the hotel's room service. The menu includes reinvented classics and signature courses with an original twist, like the Salade des Artistes or the Burger Carlton. Breathtaking beaded chandeliers, designed exclusively for the hotel bar, add an elegant touch to the warm and intimate ambiance. It invites guests to linger and savour delicious cocktails, like the famous Rouge Carlton.

World of serenity.

Ideal for recharging and revitalising, the CODAGE spa offers a relaxing atmosphere, sauna, as well as nail bar.

Inspired by her.

The hotel accommodates a woman's every wish and need. Exclusive services and special attention are designed with a woman's particular needs in mind.

Havens of comfort.

Six rooms are named after the artists who have stayed there regularly. Thus, No. 103 is called the "Laurent Terzieff" as he occupied this room regularly over many years.

SEMINARS, BOARD MEETINGS & RECEPTIONS

Room hire, business breakfasts, workshops, residential seminars or cocktail parties: each event is customised with style and elegance in mind.

Le Salon is suffused with natural light and comes with Wi-Fi, air conditioning and state-of-the-art audio-visual equipment.
